PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1a (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1a.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

An army training area is located 6 kilometers (km) south of Lomonosov and approximately 9 km west of 2 military installations at Petrodvorets (Figure 1).

The installation occupies approximately 2,200 acres, with poorly defined limits, and contains wheeled- and tracked-vehicle driver-training courses, probable flat-trajectory firing ranges, and probable infantry field-training areas. The facility also contains 2 vehicle storage buildings, 2 probable barracks, 2 probable general storage structures, 1 guard shed, and 25 miscellaneous support buildings (Figures 2 and 3).

[redacted] missions of interpretable photography covered the area between [redacted]. The installation was active throughout this period, and an ammunition storage area appears to be under construction. A target mosaic compiled from [redacted] photography showed the installation present at that time.
